

eNewsletter

The nation's largest sewing show, tailored for novices and experts alike!

www.sewexpo.com

Issue 82, December 2016

2017 Expo Dates - March 2-5, 2017 Puyallup, Washington

Dear Expo Fans,

The Excitement Begins!!!!!! Yes, your Sewing and Stitchery Expo brochures have been mailed and you can access it on-line at sewexpo.com. Choosing your seminars will be more fun than ever before with a whole new array of speakers and vendors. We have the greatest line-up of instructors in the business!

Four Day Pass will be available again this year for $42. As it is the most cost effective way to provide a 4 day pass, we will once again be using bracelets. We will try to have scissors available to shorten the strap but you may want to bring your own.

On-line registration begins on January 5, 2017 (it will open sometime on Thursday morning (PST) during regular business hours). Deadlines include a postmark of February 12 for regular mail and February 26 for on-line registration. Get your registration in early so you don't miss out on your favorite seminars.

I want to share with you a copy of the SCHMETZ Inspired to SEW e-zine. This issue is all about the Sewing & Stitchery Expo!

Click here to read about where it all started and how we make the Expo happen year after year!

We get many inquiries regarding hotels in the Puyallup area. We have a list of hotels on our website but we don't specifically endorse any of them. (We stay at home, so we have no personal experience!) Thanks.

Enjoy your holidays and when you get the brochure or see it on our website: www.sewexpo.com, be sure to read it carefully. Many new venues are listed throughout the brochure and not just in the first two pages!

Joanne Ross, Director
www.sewexpo.com

Joanne Ross
Director