Happy New Year to You All,

On-line registration is going very well and I know you are anxiously waiting for your tickets. First, let me apologize for any frustration you may have had the first day of on-line ticket sales. Once again, it seems like most of you ordered at once and our system got a hiccup from overload and everything was shut down for a period of time. However, we have fixed the problem and so order your tickets now if you have not done so. Please be patient, we promise to have them to you as soon as possible, meaning within three weeks. If you don't receive them after three weeks, please call.

Please see our website www.sewexpo.com for sold out classes or any updated information related to seminars. Also check Facebook for any last minute news related to the Expo.

They have taught classes around the world and will now come to the Expo for your enjoyment.
