The Sewing & Stitchery Expo is Right Around the Corner...

We are just days away from the largest consumer show in the country! Are you Ready!?

Congratulations!

The winner of the Facebook contest that was announced in the last newsletter is Diane Crowell. You will have 5 extra tickets entered to win the drawings at Friday Night Live AND Quilter's Night Out! Do you have your tickets to the events!?

Ticket Office Reminders

Online ticket sales will close this Sunday, February 25th. All orders received after Tuesday, February 20th will be available for pick up at the will call window - we are no longer shipping orders.

Once you have received your order, be sure to open and verify your tickets. If you have not received your 2018 order, please call the ticket office at 866-554-8559.

If you need to perform an exchange, purchase additional tickets, or have any other ticketing issues while at Expo, please visit the ticket booth in the Showplex Building.

As You're Preparing for Expo...

- Remember to bring a bag for all your shopping as they will not be provided.
- Fairground maps are available online for download. Copies will also be available at the gate
- Check online at sewexpo.com to see the complete list of vendors and map out your time on the vendor floor for maximum shopping success!
- Visit our Facebook and other social media pages periodically for any Expo news, post and view photos, and share the fun with everyone! "Check in" on Facebook to let all of your friends know where to find all the excitement!
- Make sure you have your student supplies on hand for those classes that require them.
- It is best to bring exact cash for any kit fees (paid directly to teacher) to avoid any delay or confusion.
- Take care of yourself! It is easy to over-do it trying to see and do everything! Be sure to take breaks to rest, eat, and drink plenty of water!

Don't Forget!

- You still have a chance to purchase tickets to the amazing evening events! Don't miss Joe and Kentaro at Friday Night Live and Valori at Quilter's Night Out!
- Bring your Emerald City Comic Con ticket on Sunday for discounted prices on select tickets.
- Free admission ticket when you bring a valid Design School Student ID.

As always, we look forward to seeing everyone at the 2018 Sewing and Stitchery Expo in Puyallup.
